

I feel it is horrible that we allow our government to control as much as they do. I know that i do not vote for some of these insane laws and people into office. With the way things are going we will need another country to remove our upcoming dictatorship of a government. We must support all businesses and their rights so we may continue to grow and create new jobs. So i support XM and their fight. None the less they kick ass.